“Chinlink . Mid-Autumn Caring Campaign”
Volunteers Once Again to Spread Love and Care to the Singleton Elderlies

[5 September 2016 - Hong Kong] Chinlink International Holdings Limited (“Chinlink”, HKSE Stock Code: 0997) and its subsidiaries (collectively the “Group”) deeply cares about the community and sponsors the “Chinlink . Mid-Autumn Caring Campaign” (the “Event”) to visit the singleton elderlies, organised by Jockey Club Yau Tong Children & Youth Integrated Services Centre, The Boys' & Girls' Clubs Association of Hong Kong for the second consecutive year. In this joyful Mid-Autumn Festival, the Group encourages employees to show their concern to the elderlies and cultivates the corporate culture of participating in community services.

The Event was successfully held in the morning of 4 September 2016 and there were a total of about 125 volunteers, including the members of Chinlink Corporate Volunteer Service Team, youngsters and parent-child volunteers from Jockey Club Yau Tong Children & Youth Integrated Services Centre, The Boys' & Girls' Clubs Association of Hong Kong (the “Centre”) participated in the Event. The volunteers divided into small teams and visited the singleton elderlies who live in Yau Lai Estate and Yau Tong Estate of Yau Tong. The elderlies were delighted to have the volunteers visiting their home and shared their causal anecdotes. The volunteers later presented the “Chinlink . Mid-Autumn Gift Pack” to share the festive joy with the elderlies.

In the sharing session after the visit, the volunteers expressed that they could understand the physical condition and daily needs of the elderlies through the dialogues with them, the social workers may provide them assistance and support accordingly. One of the volunteers said the Event was meaningful as he could offer spiritual support to the elderlies and in return he gained precious life experience through communicating with them.

Mr. Siu Wai Yip, Executive Director of Chinlink International Holdings Limited, said, “the Group is committed in encouraging employees to participate in community visits and charitable services, and continue to care for the underprivileged community, therefore, we participated in this meaningful Mid-Autumn festive visit again. Apart from cultivating patience of our employees, the Group also expects it can enhance their communications skills with the elderlies, allow them to devote time, love and care to the community and overcome the generation barriers so as to promote the message of social harmony and fulfil good corporate citizenship.”

The beneficiary organization, i.e. The Boys' & Girls' Club Association of Hong Kong (“BGCA”), was established in 1936. With the founding ethos “Nurture the Young Create the Future”, BGCA endeavours to facilitate the wellbeing of children and young people. The objects of BGCA include, to help children and youth attain well-balanced moral, intellectual, physical, social and aesthetic development; to nurture children and youth to be contributing citizens; to strengthen the functioning of families; to promote the concern of parents and the public for the welfare of youngsters, in particular disadvantaged groups, and to strive for the rights to which they are entitled, through concerted efforts with service recipients and the general public.

Chinlink Corporate Volunteer Service Team and volunteers from Jockey Club Yau Tong Children & Youth Integrated Services Centre, The Boys' & Girls' Clubs Association of Hong Kong visited singleton elderlies and sent festive blessings to the community.
